President's Corner

Hello NCoCC Members,

I hope everyone is healthy and avoiding Covid as best you can. Our 2 year old granddaughter caught it, but thankfully was Asymptomatic. We probably all know someone close to us (or yourself) that has gotten it. The news is hinting that the current wave is leveling off so maybe the worry and restrictions will start easing.

Our January Mystery Run was well attended with 10 cars. We headed north on backroads, touched on Temecula, and then around to the Ricardo Breceda's Art Gallery in Aguanga (highway 79). Ricardo Breceda is the artist that created all the large metal sculptures out in the desert surrounding Borrego. He must have had hundreds of sculptures, big and small, at his outdoor gallery (all for sale of course). He was actually there that day and we got to meet him. Then, on to Santa Ysabel to The Farmhouse 78 restaurant for lunch. Long run but everyone seemed to have a good time.

We had another meet-up at the Hamburger Factory in Poway. We had a good lunch and plenty of socializing. It is looking like this will be a regular thing. All are welcome to come, no sign-ups, just show up. No agenda, just eating, talking and Laughing. The next one will be on Friday February 11th, 11am, at the Hamburger Factory on Midland Road in Poway.

I am also looking forward to the Valentine Picnic lunch on February 12th.

Drive safe,

Mark Harwell

Got an idea for a 'fun run'?

let's set it up!

Mystery Run

The mystery has been revealed. We had a good turnout with 10 cars participating and had fun chatting on our radios during the trip. We left Escondido and headed north on Bear Valley Parkway, Through Valley Center and, then, took a side detour on Cole Grade Road (most had never been on this road) and on to the southern edge of Temecula for a bathroom/gas stop.

From there we headed south on 79 Ricardo Breceda's Art Gallery in Aguanga. Ricardo Breceda is the artist that designed and made the large metal sculptures out in the desert surrounding Borrego. He was there that day and we got to meet and talk to him. There must have been 100s of sculptures, all for sale of course, that were very cool to see up close.

From there we continued south on 79 to Santa Isabel where we had lunch at Farmhouse 78 (near Dudley's). We had a nice lunch and everyone seemed to enjoy the day.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND (GDB) CHARITY REPORT

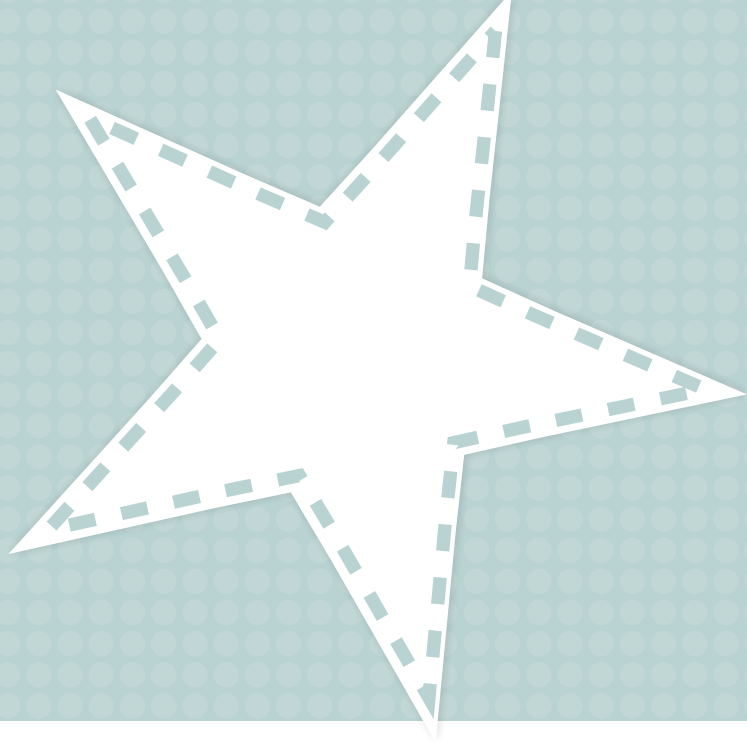

Hello everyone,

I hope your year has started out in a happy and healthy way. We just got some exciting news that the Regenhardt's will be receiving a Male Black Lab XX, and his name starts with a "L", on February 12th to start the training journey of becoming a Guide Dog (or Service Dog).

This month the Rindskopf's received a Female Golden Retriever. She was 9 ½ weeks old and a very cute big fluffy girl. We were only given a clue that her name started with a "B", and her parents names, prior to receiving her. So we tried to get other raisers, family and friends to guess the name. Her name was not guessed by anyone as it is an unusual one. Her name is "Babka", which means a sweet braided bread that originated in Jewish Communities in Ukraine (whoever came up with that name I would love to talk to ;-)). We have been very busy with training on the paw pad, loose leash walking and house manners. She is a bit stubborn and learns at a lower pace than some. Patience IS a virtue! This is the day we picked her up.

Have a wonderful New Year!
Take Care and Have a Tail Waggin Day!

Happy Birthday to You!
