President's Corner

Hello NCoCC Members,

I hope everyone had a great Holiday season. It has been another crazy year with Covid all around, but we were finally able to start meeting in person again. Not sure what 2022 will bring but we will get through it together.

Our Dec 18th Holiday gathering was a great success. Pasta and salads at our house and then on to the Gilroy's for snacks, desserts, and some games. The fun run (planned by the Regenhardt's) between houses was challenging but fun. Thanks to all that participated (most of the club) and to those that did the planning.

Pete hosted us at his house at Poway Candy Cane Lane. Parking in the surrounding driveways was like a mini car show. We had drinks, lots of conversations, and a leisurely walk through the neighborhood to enjoy all the Christmas lights. December also brought us another meet-up at the Hamburger Factory in Poway (11am on the second Friday). We had a good lunch and plenty of socializing. The next one will be on Friday, Jan 11th, 11am, at the Hamburger Factory on Midland Road in Poway. All are welcome. No agenda, just eating, talking, and laughing.

Drive safe,

Mark Harwell

NATIONAL CORVETTE MUSEUM (NCM) REPORT

The 115 new Corvettes, pictured, are going to be scrapped after being damaged in the early December windstorm at Bowling Green Assembly. Dealers are being notified and will be able to replace the cars with priority ordering. The factory was opened for production again for a week before Christmas and closed now for Union mandatory holiday until January 3, 2022.

Keep driving your Corvettes and Happy New Year.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND (GDB) CHARITY REPORT

Hello everyone,

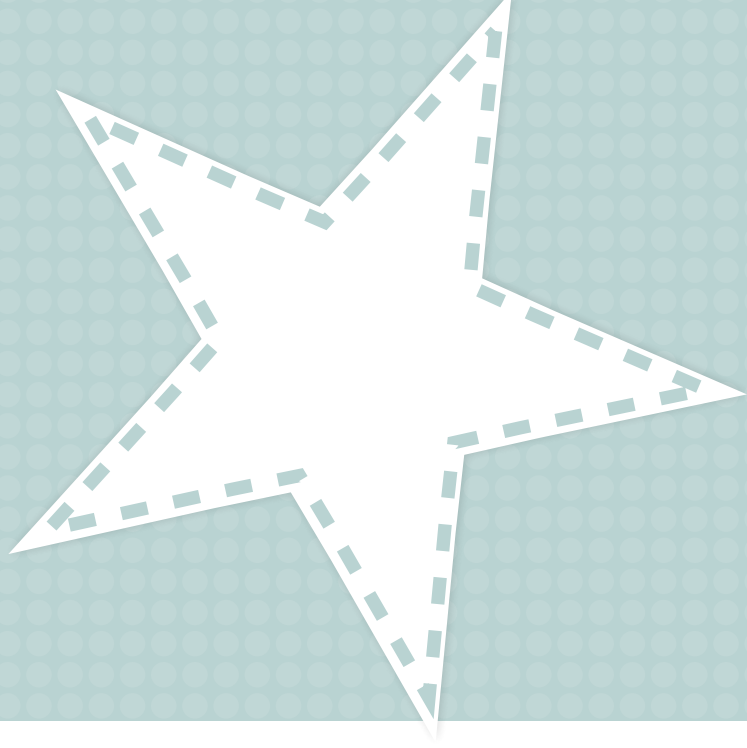

I hope you all have had a healthy and happy holiday season and the New Year will bring better things for us all.

Some new updates on our Guide Dog Puppies this month are good. First Cam (MBL) has been accepted into the Dogs for Better Lives organization to train as a hearing impaired dog and is doing great with his training. Jack did well through the first 4 phases of his training with GDB, but was just Career Changed for being very sensitive in certain situations. He has now been adopted by a special family in Reno and settling in with them. He had a White Christmas and learned about snow. Very cute pictures and videos were seen by his puppy raisers.

We are still waiting for arrivals of a few new Puppies, but meantime still training with our Career Change dogsx

Have a wonderful New Year!
Take Care and Have a Tail Waggin Day!
