President's Corner

Hello NCoCC Members,

Welcome aboard Joe and Deborah Harding, our newest Members.

The Covid situation is trending down and it is nice not having to wear a mask all the time. I hope everyone is healthy and are avoiding Covid as best you can.

In February we had our Valentine Picnic lunch at Santee Lakes after a back road run from the mall in Escondido. Thank you Kathleen and Dave for a great job at the planning. They even ordered up a beautifully warm day. We all had a good time.

We had a good lunch and plenty of socializing at our Hamburger Factory meet-up in Poway. The next one will be on Friday, Mar 11th, 11 am at the Hamburger Factory on Midland Road in Poway. All are welcome to come, no sign-ups, just show up. No agenda, just eating, talking, and laughing.

Drive safe,

Mark Harwell

NATIONAL CORVETTE MUSEUM (NCM) REPORT

The National Corvette Museum is pleased to announce that Chef Bobby Hammock has joined the organization as Consulting Executive Chef of the Stingray Grill. Beyond overseeing general restaurant operations, under Hammock's leadership, the National Corvette Museum will begin internal catering operations for small and mid-sized events on property.

In news from the Bowling Green Assembly Plant, the display of the 2023 Corvette Z06 has started going to some of the largest Corvette Dealers first. I called Bob Stanley to see if one had been scheduled and did not hear back. I found out later that the west coast dealers will be some of the last.

Keep Driving those Corvettes,

Dwight Alexander

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND (GDB) CHARITY REPORT

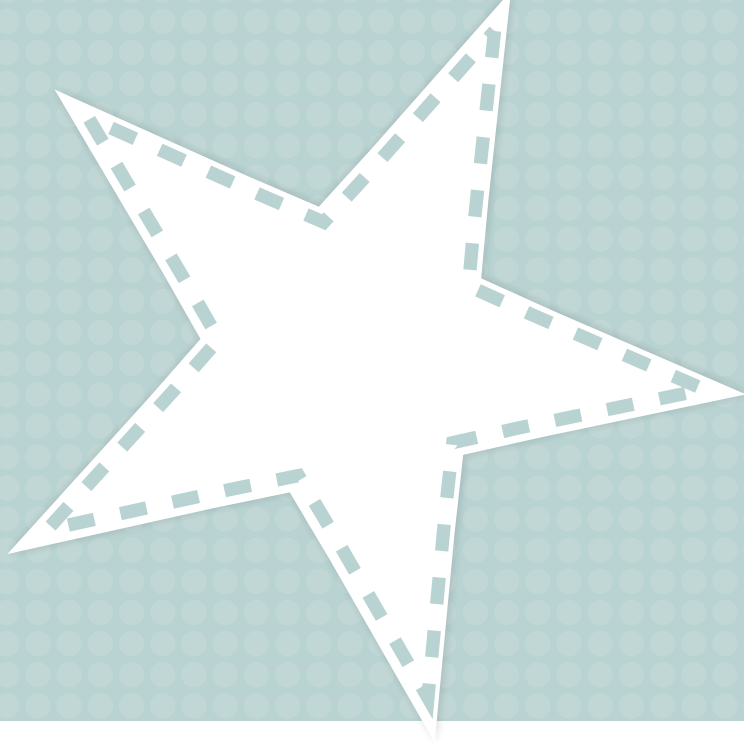

Hello everyone,

This past month we received another puppy in our club. The Regenhardt's will be raising a M BLX (this means mostly Lab with a little Golden) and his name is Lucca. Kathleen got to introduce him at our last puppy club meeting to the other puppy raisers. He is quite the little charmer. Babka and Lucca are learning their names, paw pad training, sit, down, wait as well as loose leash walking. They will learn a lot in the next month with consistent training.

Just got the news we will be receiving 2 more puppies on 3/12. Below are pictures of Kathleen receiving Lucca from the GDB truck.

Have a wonderful New Year!
