Another fun run and a little history learning mixed in. Several of our members traveled to Julian to visit the Eagle Mining Co. and tour the mines. Afterward, it was back to Santa Ysabel for some lunch at Farmhouse 78.

Thank you Gary and Sharon Wood for planning this run!

Happy Birthday to You!

In Memoriam

Alan L. Smerican passed away on May 11th at the age of 80 years.

He battled cancer and many other health issues over the past 15 years, surviving more critical events than Expected. His family would tease him that he had nine lives, and he would respond back that with all the gun battles he was involved in during his Army, Police and FBI careers, it was more like 27 lives.

Alan is survived by his beloved wife of 47 years, Marcia, his children Adam, Jennifer and Jason, his son-in-law and two daughters-in-law, and five grandsons.

This 18"x16" framed print was given to the club in 2001 by the San Diego Center for Children. The plaque reads "Thank You for Keeping Our Kids Wheels Turning." We donated a white board (we didn't have a place to store it).

Look what got caught being tested in Michigan.....one of 5 C8 ZR1's.

This is an artist's rendering of the 24-25 ZR1.

Dear Members,

If you take pictures at any one of our events, please provide them to our Webmaster, Ed Daher, so that he may place them on our website for all to enjoy.
