Del Mar to Oceanside Run

Led by: Jay & Sheila Kopelowitz

Our run started with some pastries and beverages, provided by Jay and Sheila Kopelowitz, at the Seasalt Del Mar restaurant.

Then we took a drive down the coast to Encinitas where we viewed the Boat Houses. These houses were built in 1928 by Miles Kellogg using recycled materials, and they were purchased in 2008 for permanent preservation. Miles Kellogg was one of Encinitas' most noted recyclers. A versatile builder with a talent for taking scrap material and incorporating it into new structures.

Del Mar to Oceanside Run continued

Next we visited the Leo Carrillo Ranch in Carlsbad.

Leo Carrillo is best known for playing Pancho in the 1950s TV series The Cisco Kid. He has two stars, for film and television, on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. He performed in Broadway plays prior to his Hollywood film career. At an age when many people think of retiring, Leo established a 1,750 acre working ranch of his childhood dreams. His preservation of California's cultural and natural resources adds to his legacy. Leo was proclaimed "Mr. California" for the 18 years he served on the State Beaches and Parks Commission and for touring the world as the state's Goodwill Ambassador. Our last stop of the day was lunch at the Tin Fish in Oceanside.

Lewis loves woodworking small items such as toys and Christmas ornaments. Other hobbies enjoyed by Lewis and Judi are antiques, genealogy, board games, card games and hand crafts.

Dear Members,

If you take pictures at any one of our events, please provide them to our Webmaster, Ed Daher, so that he may place them on our website for all to enjoy.

Thank you!
